

By Mr. Kelleher of Boston, petition of Robert Connolly and John G. Kelleher for the appointment of a joint special committee to consider the question of eligibility to vote in state, municipal and national elections. Election Laws.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

1 Ordered, That a special commission consisting of three 2 senators and six representatives shall be appointed to consider 3 the question of eligibility to vote in state, municipal and 4 national elections.

For the purpose of the present report, and in order to be able to present a complete and accurate statement of the facts, it is necessary to state that the following information was obtained from the files of the Department of the Interior.

The Government of the Territory

It is stated that the following information was obtained from the files of the Department of the Interior, and that the same is being presented for the information of the committee.