

applications for employment. During their period of eligibility, persons may add to their labor service applications titles of positions for which they qualify other than those for which they originally applied, and their registration for such additional positions shall continue for the remainder of their period of eligibility.

The names of widows or widowed mothers of veterans who were killed in action or died from service-connected disability, upon presenting proof from official sources of such facts, satisfactory to the administrator, and who have not remarried, shall be placed on the eligible lists for the classes in the labor service for which they apply and qualify above the names of all other applicants but below the names of veterans.

If the appointing officer certifies in the requisition for laborers that the work to be performed requires young and vigorous men, and, on investigation, the administrator is satisfied that such certificate is true, he may fix a limit of age and certify only those whose age falls within such limit.
