Chap. 743. AN ACT MAKING CERTAIN CHANGES IN THE LAW RELATIVE TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF BRANCH OFFICES OR DEPOTS OF SAVINGS BANKS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 5 of chapter 168 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph, as most recently amended by sections 7 and 8 of chapter 1149 of the acts of 1973, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:—

After such notice and hearing as the commissioner may require and with his written permission and under such conditions as he may approve, such corporation may establish and maintain one or more branch offices or depots (a) in the city or town wherein its main office is located, or (b) in other cities or towns within the same county, or within fifteen miles from the premises of the main office, having no main office or branch office of a savings bank or which, in the opinion of the commissioner, the public convenience and advantage would be served by the establishment of additional savings bank facilities. Every application to establish and maintain one or more such branch offices or depots shall be accompanied by payment of an investigation fee of five hundred dollars for each branch office or depot applied for. Not more than one application by a savings bank to establish a branch office or depot under this paragraph outside of the county wherein its principal office is located shall be approved in any calendar year.
