Chap. 300. AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE PROMPT DISPOSITION OF CASES PENDING AGAINST PRISONERS INVOLVING VIOLATION OF PROBATION.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 279 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 3, as amended by chapter 251 of the acts of 1972, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 3. At any time before final disposition of the case of a person placed under probation supervision or in the custody or care of a probation officer, the probation officer may arrest him without a warrant and take him before the court, or the court may issue a warrant for his arrest. When taken before the court, it may, if he has not been sentenced, sentence him or make any other lawful disposition of the case, and if he has been sentenced, it may continue or revoke the suspension of the execution of his sentence. If such suspension is revoked, the sentence shall be in full force and effect. If a warrant has been issued by the court for the arrest of such a person
