Chap. 10. AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DATES FOR ANNUAL TOWN MEETING AND SUBMISSION OF BUDGETS IN CITIES IN THE YEAR NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-TWO.

ACTS, 1982. - Chap. 10.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to immediately authorize the postponement of annual town meetings and presentation by mayors of city budgets to city councils for the current year, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience. _____

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section nine of chapter thirty-nine of the General Laws or any other law, by-law or charter to the contrary, a town, by a vote of its board of selectmen or town council may delay the annual town meeting for the current year; provided, however, that such annual town meeting shall complete its business on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eighty-two.

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law or any regional school district agreement to the contrary, a school committee of a regional school district is not required to adopt its annual budget for the fiscal year commencing July first, nineteen hundred and eighty-two earlier than forty-five days prior to the earliest date on which the annual town meeting of any member town is held; provided, however, that the selectmen or town council in the town which has scheduled such earliest date for its annual town meeting may authorize said school committee of the regional school district to adopt its budget subsequent to said forty-five days.

SECTION 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section thirty-two of chapter forty-four of the General Laws, the mayor in any city, except the city of Boston, may, within one hundred and twenty days after the annual organization of such city government in the calendar year nineteen hundred and eighty-two submit to the city council the annual budget for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and eighty-three. In any city, except the city of Boston, if said annual budget has been submitted to the city council on the effective date of this act, said city council shall have an additional seventy-five days to consider said budget, but shall be required to take final action, in any event, not later than June fifteenth, nineteen hundred and eighty-two.

SECTION 4. The provisions of sections one and two of this act shall not apply to any portion of the annual town meeting which provides for the elections and certification of officers and other matters to be determined by ballot. The annual town
