

ACTS, 1982. - Chap. 213.

"organization attempting to influence legislation" shall not include any official representative of the student body.

SECTION 6. A vote of the student body of any state college or university to which this act is applicable, taken prior to the effective date of this act, which approved the collection of any fee referred to in this act on student tuition bills, shall not be negated by the provisions of this act and is to be deemed to be a vote taken under the provisions of section eighteen of chapter fifteen A of the General Laws so long as the collection of said fee is otherwise in compliance with the provisions of this act. Said vote shall be deemed to be the approval of a waivable fee.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect as of July first, nineteen hundred and eighty-two.

Approved July 1, 1982.

Chap. 213. AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE AUTHORITY OF BANKS TO MAKE CERTAIN INVESTMENTS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 168 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 51A, inserted by chapter 363 of the acts of 1970, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 51A. Such corporation may make any investment not otherwise eligible under any other provision of this chapter or any other provision of law, including but not limited to investment in any capital stock of a corporation organized for the purposes of acquiring and managing interests in real property and acquiring, constructing, rehabilitating, leasing, financing and disposing of housing facilities, or in any other interest in real or personal property, debt security, equity security or loan; provided that (a) no more than five per cent of the deposits of such corporation shall be invested pursuant to the provisions of this section; provided, however, that any amount in excess of three of said five per cent shall be invested by any such corporation in capital stock of a corporation organized for the purposes of acquiring, constructing, rehabilitating, leasing, financing and disposing of housing facilities; (b) no investment shall be made by such corporation in the equity securities of any one issuer pursuant to this section if the aggregate amount invested by it in the equity securities of such issuer pursuant to this section together with the amount invested in such securities pursuant to any other provision of law exceeds, or by the making of such investment will exceed, two per cent of the deposits of such corporation, and no investment shall be made by such corporation in a loan to, or in the debt securities of, any one issuer pursuant to this section, if the aggregate amount invested by it pursuant to this section together with the amount invested in a loan to, or in the debt securities of, such issuer pursuant to any other provision of law exceeds two per cent of the deposits of such corporation; (c) any loan made or debt security purchased pursuant to this section shall be secured over the term of the loan or the debt security; (d) this section shall not be deemed to alter any provision of this chapter or other provision of law limiting the aggregate amount that may be invested in any class of loan or investment; and (e) investments authorized solely by this section shall not be deemed investments in which savings banks may legally invest for the purposes of any other provision of law which restricts investments to those in which savings banks may legally invest.

ACTS, 1982. - Chap. 213.

SECTION 2. Section 48 of chapter 172 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out clause 20, as amended by chapter 627 of the acts of 1981, and inserting in place thereof the following clause:-

20. To make any investment not otherwise eligible under any other provision of this chapter or any other provision of law, including but not limited to investment in any capital stock of a corporation organized for the purposes of acquiring and managing interests in real property and acquiring, constructing, rehabilitating, leasing, financing and disposing of housing facilities, or in any other interest in real or personal property, debt security, equity security or loan; provided that (a) no more than five per cent of the deposits of such corporation shall be invested pursuant to the provisions of this section; provided, however, that any amount in excess of three of said five per cent shall be invested by any such corporation in capital stock of a corporation organized for the purposes of acquiring, constructing, rehabilitating, leasing, financing and disposing of housing facilities; (b) no investment shall be made by such corporation in the equity securities of any one issuer pursuant to this section if the aggregate amount invested by it in the equity securities of such issuer pursuant to this section, together with the amount invested in such securities pursuant to any other provision of law exceeds, or by the making of such investment will exceed, two per cent of the deposits of such corporation, and no investment shall be made by such corporation in a loan to, or in the debt securities of, any one issuer pursuant to this section, if the aggregate amount invested by it pursuant to this section together with the amount invested in a loan to, or in the debt securities of, such issuer pursuant to any other provision of law exceeds two per cent of the deposits of such corporation; (c) any loan made or debt security purchased pursuant to this section shall be secured over the term of the loan or the debt security; (d) this section shall not be deemed to alter any provision of this chapter or other provision of law limiting the aggregate amount that may be invested in any class of loan or investment; and (e) investments authorized solely by this section shall not be deemed investments in which banks may legally invest for the purposes of any other provision of law which restricts investments to those in which banks may legally invest.

ACTS, 1982. - Chap. 214.

Approved July 1, 1982.

Chap. 214. AN ACT AUTHORIZING PLYMOUTH COUNTY TO PAY A CERTAIN SUM OF MONEY TO THE LIBERTY PRINTING CO., INC.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The treasurer of Plymouth county, with the approval of the county commissioners of said county, is hereby authorized to pay, from available funds, The Liberty Printing Co., Inc: an amount not to exceed five hundred and twenty-one dollars and seventy-five cents for providing printing services to the district court in the year nineteen hundred and seventy-nine.

SECTION 2. No bill shall be approved by the county commissioners or paid by the treasurer thereof under the authority of this act unless and until a certificate has been signed and filed with the county treasurer stating, under penalties of perjury that the services for which such bill was submitted were ordered by an official or an employee of said county, and that such services were performed and actually received by said county.

SECTION 3. Any person who knowingly files a certificate required by section two, which is false, and who thereby receives payment for services which were not received by said county shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one