

HOUSE No. 1088

By Mr. MacLean of Fairhaven, petition of William Q. MacLean, Jr., for legislation to regulate mileage allowances relative to the transportation of prisoners. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE MILEAGE COMPENSATION CONNECTED WITH THE TRANSPORTATION OF PRISONERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 21 of chapter 262 of the General Laws is hereby 2 amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place
3 thereof the following sentence:—

4 In the service of precepts in criminal cases, the officer shall be 5 allowed the actual, reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in 6 going or returning with the prisoner, and if he necessarily uses his 7 own conveyance, he shall be allowed therefor twenty cents a mile 8 for the distance traveled, both ways, except that in the service of 9 such precepts of the district court of Chelsea, if he necessarily uses 10 his own conveyance, he shall be allowed, if the distance traveled is 11 less than ten miles, thirty cents a mile for the distance traveled, 12 both ways; and if he uses the conveyance of another person, he 13 shall be allowed the amount actually expended by him therefor; 14 but no allowance for the use of a conveyance shall be made unless 15 the officer certifies that it was necessary for him to use a 16 conveyance and that he actually used it for the distance, and, if the 17 conveyance of another was used, that he paid therefor the amount 18 stated in his certificate.
