

HOUSE No. 1422

By Mr. Nagle of Northampton, petition of William P. Nagle, Jr., for legislation to prohibit hunting on private property without written permission of owners or tenants. Natural Resources and Agriculture.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

AN ACT PROHIBITING HUNTING ON PRIVATE PROPERTY WITHOUT WRITTEN PERMISSION OF THE OWNER OR TENANT.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Chapter 131 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking
2 out section 36, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 802 of the acts of
3 1967, and inserting in place thereof the following section: —
4 Section 36. A person shall not fish, hunt or trap on private land
5 without written permission of the owner or tenant thereof, after
6 such owner or tenant has conspicuously posted thereon notices
7 which bear the name of such owner or tenant and which state that 8 fishing, hunting or trapping on such land, as the case may be, is 9 prohibited.

To the people of the State of New York: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst., in relation to the proposed amendment to the Constitution of this State, and to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee on the Constitution, and that they have reported thereon to the Senate on the 12th inst.

The Constitution of the State in the Senate Chamber, Albany, January 12, 1891.

As the proposed amendment to the Constitution of this State, which was adopted by the Convention of 1890, and which is now before the Senate, is of a nature which would materially alter the form of the Government, it is necessary that the people should be fully informed of its contents, and of the reasons for its adoption.

The Committee on the Constitution, to which the same was referred, have the honor to report that they have carefully considered the same, and are of the opinion that it is not expedient to adopt it.

The Committee further report that they have also considered the proposed amendment to the Constitution, which was adopted by the Convention of 1890, and which is now before the Senate, and are of the opinion that it is not expedient to adopt it. The Committee further report that they have also considered the proposed amendment to the Constitution, which was adopted by the Convention of 1890, and which is now before the Senate, and are of the opinion that it is not expedient to adopt it.
