

By Mr. Flynn of Boston, petition of James Maunsell, Raymond L. Flynn, Marie E. Howe and John F. Melia for adoption of resolutions by the General Court memorializing the Congress of the United States to call for self-determination for the country of Ireland. Federal Financial Assistance.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

RESOLUTIONS MEMORIALIZING THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO CALL FOR SELF-DETERMINATION FOR THE COUNTRY OF IRELAND.

1 Whereas, The United States was founded upon a spirit of
2 equality and freedom of choice; and

3 Whereas, The country of Ireland is currently involved in an
4 internal conflict which is being affected by external policies and
5 governments; and

6 Whereas, The United States traditionally favors policies of self-
7 determination over policies of colonization; therefore be it

8 Resolved, That the General Court of Massachusetts respectfully
9 urges the Congress of the United States to enact such legislation as 10 may be necessary to call for self-determination of government for 11 the country of Ireland: and be it further

12 Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent forthwith by 13 the State Secretary to the President of the United States, to the 14 presiding officers of each branch of Congress and to the members
15 thereof from this Commonwealth.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE

THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE

IN ANSWER TO A RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

IN APRIL 1884

1. The Commission of Enquiry into the Land Revenue of the United Kingdom, which was appointed by the House of Commons in 1878, has the honor to report to you the results of its inquiries.
2. The Commission has had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
3. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
4. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
5. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
6. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
7. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
8. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
9. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.
10. The Commission has also had the advantage of the assistance of a large number of gentlemen who have been appointed as members of the Commission, and who have been engaged in the most diligent manner to collect and collate the materials necessary for the purpose of the Commission.