

HOUSE No. 6043

Substituted by the House, on motion of Mr. Segel of Brookline, for a bill with the same title (House, No. 1305). June 22.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

AN ACT ESTABLISHING AN INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR THE EXPENSE OF COMPLYING WITH THE "LEAD PAINT LAW", SO CALLED.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 6 of chapter 62 of the General Laws is
2 hereby amended by adding the following subsection: —

3 (c) any owner, occupant of a single family residential property in 4 a building of one unit or more who removes or covers paint, plaster
5 or other accessible materials containing dangerous levels of lead as 6 defined in section one hundred and ninety-four of chapter one
7 hundred and eleven, shall be allowed a credit for the cost of 8 removing said paint from the owner occupied unit only, or five
9 hundred dollars whichever is less. The credit shall be allowed only
10 if evidence of inspection by the local or state public health
11 inspector is submitted with the income tax return.

1 SECTION 2. The provisions of this act shall apply to income
2 taxes for years ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and 3 seventy-eight.
