

HOUSE No. 1369

By Mr. Collins of Amherst, petition of James G. Collins and John W. Olver that the State Retirement Board be authorized to grant an accidental disability pension to Armand H. Demers, Jr., an employee of the University of Massachusetts. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Two.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE STATE RETIREMENT BOARD TO GRANT A RETIREMENT PENSION TO ARMAND H. DEMERS, JR.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Notwithstanding the provision of any law to the contrary and in
- 2 order to promote the public good, the state retirement board is
- 3 hereby authorized to grant a retirement pension under accidental
- 4 disability benefits to Armand H. Demers, Jr., an employee of the
- 5 University of Massachusetts, and to allow him to retain any other
- 6 benefits, including health coverage, incidental thereto.

The Committee on Education and the Arts of the House of Representatives has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your report on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and to express its appreciation for the information and assistance furnished to it in the preparation of the same.

The Constitution of the United States

Article I, Section 8, Clause 18

And that notwithstanding the fact that the proposed amendments are not in conformity with the original intent of the framers of the Constitution, the Committee is of the opinion that they should be adopted.

The Committee further recommends that the proposed amendments be adopted by the House of Representatives.

The Committee is of the opinion that the proposed amendments are in conformity with the original intent of the framers of the Constitution, and that they should be adopted by the House of Representatives.
