FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
March 14, 2016

CONTACT
Elizabeth Guyton
elizabeth.guyton@state.ma.us

MEDIA ADVISORY

Governor Charlie Baker’s Schedule for Tuesday, March 15, 2016

BOSTON – Tomorrow, Governor Charlie Baker will return to Hope House in Boston, where the Governor’s Opioid Working Group’s initial steps to combat the opioid addiction public health crisis were first announced in February, 2015. The Governor and Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Marylou Sudders will host a roundtable with advocates and members of the Governor’s Opioid Working Group to discuss the recently passed landmark legislation and other reforms contributing to treatment initiatives. Governor Baker will next visit the Joseph Abboud manufacturing factory in New Bedford, followed by the Bristol-Plymouth Regional Technical School in Taunton.

Tuesday, March 15, 2016:

Who: Governor Baker, HHS Secretary Sudders, Governor’s Opioid Working Group Members and Advocates
What: Roundtable to Discuss Reforms Contributing to Opioid Treatment Initiatives
When: 12:00PM
Where: Hope House, 8 Farnham Street, Boston, MA 02119
Press: Open

Who: Governor Baker
What: Visits Joseph Abboud Manufacturing Factory
When: 2:30PM
Where: 689 Belleville Avenue, New Bedford, MA 02745
Press: Open

Who: Governor Baker
What: Visits Bristol-Plymouth Regional Technical School
When: 4:00PM
Where: 207 Hart Street, Taunton, MA 02780
Press: Open

###