FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
May 16, 2016

CONTACT
Elizabeth Guyton
elizabeth.guyton@state.ma.us

MEDIA ADVISORY
Governor Charlie Baker’s Schedule for Tuesday, May 17, 2016

BOSTON – Tomorrow morning, Governor Charlie Baker will deliver remarks at the North Shore Alliance for Economic Development Public Policy Maker Series. Later, at the State House, he will join Attorney General Maura Healey, Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) Marylou Sudders, Commissioner of Public Health (DPH) Monica Bharel, Walpole Chief of Police John Carmichael and Caitrin Houlihan, an individual in long-term recovery whose life was saved by 911 and naloxone, to announce a new public awareness campaign focusing on the Massachusetts 911 Good Samaritan Law.

Tuesday, May 17, 2016:
Who: Governor Baker
What: North Shore Alliance for Economic Development Public Policy Maker Series
When: 7:15AM
Where: Salem State, Enterprise Center, 121 Loring Avenue, Salem, MA 01970
Press: Open

Who: Governor Baker, Attorney General Healey, Secretary Sudders, Commissioner Bharel, Walpole Chief of Police Carmichael and Caitrin Houlihan
What: Announce New Public Awareness Campaign for Massachusetts 911 Good Samaritan Law
When: 10:00AM
Where: Room 157, State House, Boston MA
Press: Open

###