The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty.

AN ACT

To authorize the City of Brockton to grant a Pension to the Dependents of John B. George Guyette.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The city of Brockton is hereby authorized 2 to pay to the widow and children of Patrolman John B.
3 George Guyette, a member of the police department of 4 said city, who was killed while in the lawful discharge of 5 his duties, an annual pension of not more than seven 6 hundred and fifty dollars, said pension to be payable to 7 said dependents in such proportions and under such con-8 ditions as may be determined from time to time, by vote 9 of the city council of said city of Brockton, subject, how-10 ever, to the approval of the mayor.

1 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its accept-2 ance by vote of the city council of the said city of Brock-3 ton subject to the provisions of its charter, provided such 4 acceptance occurs prior to the thirty-first day of Decem-5 ber in the current year.

The Commission on the Administration of Justice has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your report dated the 15th day of July, 1911, and to express its appreciation of the care and attention which you have devoted to the study of the subject.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMISSION

The Commission believes that the present system of the courts is inefficient and that the following changes are necessary to bring about a more efficient system.

AN ACT

To amend the Constitution of the State of New York in relation to the administration of the courts, and for other purposes.

Section 1. The Constitution of the State of New York is amended by adding to article IV, section 1, the
following: "The judges of the courts of the State
shall be elected by the people for terms of ten years,
and shall be eligible for re-election."

Section 2. The Constitution of the State of New York
is amended by adding to article IV, section 2, the
following: "The judges of the courts of the State
shall be elected by the people for terms of ten years,
and shall be eligible for re-election."

Section 3. The Constitution of the State of New York
is amended by adding to article IV, section 3, the
following: "The judges of the courts of the State
shall be elected by the people for terms of ten years,
and shall be eligible for re-election."

Section 4. The Constitution of the State of New York
is amended by adding to article IV, section 4, the
following: "The judges of the courts of the State
shall be elected by the people for terms of ten years,
and shall be eligible for re-election."

Section 5. The Constitution of the State of New York
is amended by adding to article IV, section 5, the
following: "The judges of the courts of the State
shall be elected by the people for terms of ten years,
and shall be eligible for re-election."

Section 6. The Constitution of the State of New York
is amended by adding to article IV, section 6, the
following: "The judges of the courts of the State
shall be elected by the people for terms of ten years,
and shall be eligible for re-election."
