

HOUSE No. 1018

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Feb. 1, 1930.

The committee on Military Affairs, to whom was referred the petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 337) of the Department of Massachusetts, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, for legislation to authorize the payment of military aid to certain veteran soldiers and sailors who are inmates of certain hospitals, outside the commonwealth, report the accompanying bill (House, No. 1018.)

For the committee,

HAROLD B. WEBBER.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty.

An Act making Certain Massachusetts Veterans receiving Hospital Treatment outside the Commonwealth eligible to receive Military Aid.

1 Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would
2 tend to defeat its purpose, therefore it is hereby
3 declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the 4 immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 No veteran, who is or shall be otherwise entitled
2 to military aid under chapter one hundred and fifteen
3 of the General Laws, shall lose his right thereto by 4 reason of his absence from the commonwealth while
5 receiving hospital treatment, under order of the 6 United States veterans' bureau, at the United States
7 Naval hospital at Newport, Rhode Island.
