AN ACT RELATING TO THE AMOUNT TO BE PAID INTO THE TREASURY OF THE COMMONWEALTH IN CASES OF INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS RESULTING IN DEATH.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 37 of Chapter 152 of the General Laws, as 2 most recently amended by chapter 287 of the acts of 1957, is
3 hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof the follow-
4 ing new sentence: — In the event that said fund becomes ex-
5 hausted, the state treasurer shall make such payments from the 6 General Fund without appropriation.

1 SECTION 2. Chapter 152 of the General Laws is hereby
2 amended by striking out section 65, as most recently amended
3 by section 2 of chapter 234 of the acts of 1955, and inserting in 4 place thereof the following section: —

5 Section 65. For every case of personal injury resulting in 6 death covered by this chapter, the insurer or self-insurer shall 7 pay into the treasury of the commonwealth three hundred
8 dollars. Such payments shall constitute a special fund in the 9 custody of the state treasurer, who shall make payments there-
10 from upon the written order of the division for the purposes set
11 forth in section thirty-seven and for the purpose of paying the 12 expense of printing the necessary records, papers and briefs in 13 certain appeals to the supreme judicial court as provided in sec-
14 tion eleven. The reasonable expense of prosecution, if any, by 15 the attorney general, of claim for deposit under this section,
16 shall, subject to the approval of the division, be payable out of 17 the special fund established hereunder.

The Constitution of the United States

As amended by the Thirtieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-second Congresses

Approved for printing by the Senate and House of Representatives, June 1, 1917.

The Constitution of the United States, as amended, is hereby published in accordance with the act of Congress, approved June 1, 1917, and the act of Congress, approved June 1, 1917.

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

Section 3. The Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for a Term of six Years; and they shall hold their Offices until their Successors be chosen.

Section 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding the Elections of Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law alter or add to the Rules and Regulations of the foregoing Section.

Section 5. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments, when the Case shall come on; and no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.
