AN ACT TO EXPEDITE PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT BOARD.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 8 of chapter 152 of the General Laws, as most recently
2 amended by chapter 314 of the acts of 1953, is hereby further
3 amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sen-
4 tence:— If, after the hearing of any evidence by a member
5 and before his decision is filed under this section such member
6 ceases to be a member of the industrial accident board and, in
7 lieu of an agreement of all the parties, in such proceeding that
8 the evidence already heard may be referred to another member
9 for consideration and decision on all the evidence, any of the 10 parties insists on a hearing de novo of the evidence already
11 received, the cost of the rehearing of such evidence, as deter-
12 mined by the member before whom the case is further heard,
13 shall be assessed on the party or parties so requesting such 14 hearing.

The Constitution of the State

Article I

Section 1

All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

1. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in that State.
2. No Representative shall exceed twenty five Years of Age when elected, and seven Years shall be the Term of his Election, but he shall be eligible for Re-election immediately after he has departed from his Office.
3. The Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in that State.
4. The House of Representatives shall be assembled on the first Monday in December, but they may adjourn to any other Day within the same Year.
5. The House of Representatives may, by a majority of two thirds of the Members present, expel a Member for Breach of the Rules, and, by a majority of two thirds of the whole, suspend one or more Members, until the next Session, if the Crime be not otherwise adjudged.
6. The House of Representatives shall choose their Speaker and other Officers, and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.
7. The Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have the Qualifications requisite for Senators of the most numerous Branch in that State.
8. The Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch in that State.
9. The Senate shall be assembled on the first Monday in December, but they may adjourn to any other Day within the same Year.
10. The Senate may, by a majority of two thirds of the Members present, expel a Member for Breach of the Rules, and, by a majority of two thirds of the whole, suspend one or more Members, until the next Session, if the Crime be not otherwise adjudged.
11. The Senate shall choose their President and other Officers, and shall have the sole Power of Impeachment.
12. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments, when called on to do so, and shall have the Power to impeach and try Judges, in all Cases where Impeachment may be applied for, and shall have the Power to remove them from Office.
13. The Senate shall have the Power to confirm and reject all Appointments made by the President, and to give and withhold Consent to all Grants of Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and to give and withhold Consent to all Treaties, which shall be made in pursuance of this Constitution, and to give and withhold Consent to all Grants of Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and to give and withhold Consent to all Treaties, which shall be made in pursuance of this Constitution.
