

HOUSE No. 453

By Mr. Zollo of Danvers, petition of Paul G. Zollo that retail dealers offering trading stamps to customers be required to pay the cash value of said stamps at the option of the purchaser. Mercantile Affairs.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two.

AN ACT REQUIRING RETAIL DEALERS OFFERING TRADING STAMPS TO CUSTOMERS TO PAY THE CASH VALUE OF STAMPS DUE UPON COMPLETION OF SALE AT THE OPTION OF THE PURCHASER.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Chapter 93 of the General Laws is hereby amended by insert-
- 2 ing after section 14R the following section:—
- 3 Section 14S. Any retail dealers, offering trading stamps to their
- 4 customers, shall, at the option of the recipient of such stamps,
- 5 pay to said person the cash value of said stamps as of the date of
- 6 their delivery.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

As amended to the 57th Session, 1902

ARTICLE I. LEGISLATIVE POWER.

SECTION 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in the Legislature, which shall consist of a Senate and a House of Representatives.

SECTION 2. The Senate shall be composed of not more than twenty-five members, who shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State for a term of four years, one-half of them to be elected in each year, and the members elected in each year shall hold office until the first day of January following their election.

SECTION 3. The House of Representatives shall be composed of not more than thirty members, who shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State for a term of two years, one-half of them to be elected in each year, and the members elected in each year shall hold office until the first day of January following their election.

SECTION 4. The Legislature shall assemble on the first day of September following the election of its members, and shall continue in session until the first day of September following the next election of its members, unless it adjourns sooner.

SECTION 5. The Legislature shall hold its sessions in the city of Austin, unless it shall adjourn to some other place.

SECTION 6. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to amend the Constitution of this State, and to propose amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

SECTION 7. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any office in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any office so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 8. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any court in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any court so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 9. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any county in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any county so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 10. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any city, town, or village in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any city, town, or village so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 11. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any school district in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any school district so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 12. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any public institution in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any public institution so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 13. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any public office in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any public office so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 14. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any public office in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any public office so created, altered, or abolished.

SECTION 15. The Legislature shall have the power to pass bills to create, alter, or abolish any public office in this State, and to fix the duties and powers of any public office so created, altered, or abolished.