

Property Tax Bureau
Informational Guideline Release (IGR) No. 02-204
March 2002

SOCIAL SECURITY DEDUCTION
FOR
FISCAL YEAR 2003

(G.L. Ch. 59 §5 Cl. 41, 41B or 41C)

This Informational Guideline Release (IGR) informs assessors of the social security deduction to be used in determining exemption eligibility in Fiscal Year 2003 under Clauses 41, 41B or 41C.

Topical Index Key:

Exemptions

Distribution:

Assessors

SOCIAL SECURITY DEDUCTION
FOR
FISCAL YEAR 2003

(G.L. Ch. 59 §5 Cl. 41, 41B or 41C)

The Commissioner of Revenue has determined the allowable deduction from federal social security or railroad retirement, and from federal, Massachusetts or Massachusetts political subdivision employee pensions, annuities or retirement plans for the purposes of computing gross receipts under General Laws Chapter 59, Section 5, Clauses 41, 41B or 41C.

The amount to be deducted by the assessors when computing gross receipts for applicants seeking FY2003 exemptions under those clauses has been increased by 2.6% above the amount allowed for FY2002.

GUIDELINES:

1. The following amounts should be deducted when computing the gross receipts for applicants who received income from Federal social security or railroad retirement, or from government employee pensions, annuities or retirement plans for all of 2001:

Annual Minimum Payments 2001

Worker	$3,361
Spouse	1,681
	$5,042

2. For applicants who received income from those sources for only a part of 2001, the following amount for each month for which the income was received should be deducted, provided that the total amount deducted does not exceed the total amount of such payments received:

Monthly Minimum Payments 2001

Worker	$281
Spouse	142
	$423

