

HOUSE No. 1968

By Mr. Patrone of Boston, petition of Roland N. Coulombe and Charles L. Patrone that the Department of Public Works be directed to convey certain property to said Coulombe and to Barbara A. Coulombe of Somerset. Highways and Motor Vehicles.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS TO CONVEY CERTAIN PROPERTY TO ROLAND N. AND BARBARA A. COULOMBE, WITHOUT CONSIDERATION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The department of public works, acting for and in behalf of the
2 commonwealth, is hereby authorized and directed, subject to
3 the approval of the governor and council, to convey to Roland N.
4 and Barbara A. Coulombe of Somerset, without consideration,
5 any interest in land taken by a joint board, acting under chapter
6 four hundred and sixty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and
7 three under an order of taking, dated October second, nineteen
8 hundred and seven, and recorded in Fall River district registry
9 of deeds, book one hundred and thirty-four, pages one hundred
10 and sixteen to one hundred and nineteen inclusive, on October
11 twelfth, nineteen hundred and seven, and may abandon any
12 such interest in the land acquired as aforesaid; provided, that
13 in the opinion of said department such interest is no longer
14 needed for or inconsistent with the purposes for which the land
15 was acquired.

The Constitution of the State of New York

Article I. Of the Legislature

Section 1. The Legislative Power of this State shall be vested in a Senate and an Assembly.

Section 2. The Senate shall be composed of twenty-four Members, who shall be chosen for the Term of four Years, and shall be eligible for a second Term. One-third of the Senate shall retire at the expiration of each Year, and the Vacancies shall be filled up by the Electors of the County or Counties to which they respectively belong.

Section 3. The Assembly shall be composed of thirty Members, who shall be chosen for the Term of two Years, and shall be eligible for a second Term. One-half of the Assembly shall retire at the expiration of each Year, and the Vacancies shall be filled up by the Electors of the County or Counties to which they respectively belong.

Section 4. The Electors of each County shall be qualified to elect Members of the Senate and Assembly.

Section 5. The Senate and Assembly shall meet on the first Monday in January next after the first Wednesday in March next following the Year of the Independence of this State, and on the first Monday in January of every second Year thereafter, unless otherwise provided by Law.

Section 6. The Senate and Assembly shall assemble at Albany, and shall hold their regular Sessions at that City, unless otherwise provided by Law.

Section 7. The Senate and Assembly shall have the sole and exclusive Power to originate and pass all Bills for raising Revenue, and all Bills for appropriating Money out of the Treasury, except Bills to amend the Constitution, which may originate in either House.

Section 8. The Senate and Assembly shall have the sole and exclusive Power to originate and pass all Bills for the raising, altering, or abolishing any Tax, or for the levying, altering, or abolishing any Duty, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Fee, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Penalty, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Fine, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Punishment, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Sentence, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Award, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Judgment, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Decree, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Order, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Process, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Writ, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Remedy, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Course of Proceeding, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Trial, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Appeal, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Execution, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Judgment, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Decree, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Order, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Process, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Writ, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Remedy, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Course of Proceeding, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Award, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Sentence, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Punishment, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Fine, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Penalty, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Fee, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Duty, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Tax, or for the imposing, altering, or abolishing any Mode of Enforcement of any Revenue.