

HOUSE No. 3153

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, January 3, 1962.

The committee on Rules to whom was referred the Resolutions (filed by Messrs. Curtiss of Sheffield and Ansel of Boston) on the death of Edward T. Devin (House, No. 3153), report that the same ought to be adopted.

For the committee,

CORNELIUS F. KIERNAN.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Two.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF EDWARD T. DEVIN.

Whereas, It was with great sorrow that the House of Representatives of Massachusetts learned of the death of Edward T. Devin, more popularly known as Eddie Devin, the brilliant columnist of the Scene and Heard Column of the Boston Herald; and

Whereas, Eddie Devin, one of the best known and most respected newspapermen in New England, was a familiar figure at the State House where he enjoyed the trust and friendship of countless state officials; and

Whereas, As a political writer, he was honest and sincere, conscientious and objective in his reporting and he was admired for his extreme sense of fairness, and for his gentlemanly qualities; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby expresses to his bereaved family its deepest sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That an engrossed copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the family of Edward T. Devin.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, January 3, 1961.

Adopted.

WILLIAM C. MAIERS,
Clerk.
