Details of the Treasury Building, Washington

Remarks:

No. of Pilasters 78 = 3.7 wide + 1 projection and 36 feet high including cap.

No. of Corner Pilasters 2 Double face Become projection & height
No. of half 14 = 4 - of the Span AA of 5" wide there are 62.
of the Span B = = 24 = 5.5" wide

The opening of the first floor window of windows is 24 ft wide, &
8 ft high - The other windows 12 ft wide & 3 ft 6" wide high.
The opening of Doors 5 ft 11 in by 10 ft 9 in. height, in the clear.
Rise of the first floor above Plan form of Colonnade 6 in.
The 32 divisions in height of Ashlar work will be a little full of 13 inches gradually increasing so that the upper course will be about 13 inches & the whole to make up the total height of 36 feet, from Plan form of Colonnade.

Csp. of Pilaster 2 Course High.

For Mr. Robert Brown, Supt of Public Buildings
Sign. Robert Mills Archit.
Public Buildings

Patent Office Walls in the Basement story 8 ft. 6 in thick
Principal D. 2 - 6

Columns in the portico 3 ft 6 Diam.

Recess 21 ft x 19 ft in Arch. Cliff Spring 5 ft 6 in 2 ft cutters pitch & 8 10 ft 6 in from floor to the top of the inferior
Details of Treasury Building

[Handwritten calculations and drawings]