GENERAL ORDERS, No. 20

FRANCE, March 8, 1919.

The Division Commander is pleased to announce the award by the President, in the name of Congress, of the Medal of Honor to the following-named enlisted men, for acts of gallantry and intrepidity, above and beyond the call of duty, performed in action against the enemy while members of this command:

PRIVATE, FIRST CLASS, GEORGE DILBOY (Deceased), COMPANY H, 103D INFANTRY (Medal awarded December 5, 1918)

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity, above and beyond the call of duty, in action with the enemy on July 18, 1918, near Belleau, France.

After his platoon had gained its objective along a railroad embankment, Private Dilboy, accompanying his platoon leader to reconnoiter the ground beyond, was suddenly fired upon by an enemy machine gun from one hundred yards. From a standing position on the railroad track, fully exposed to view, he opened fire at once, but failing to silence the gun, rushed forward, with his bayonet fixed, through a wheat field towards the gun emplacement, falling within twenty-five yards of the gun, with his right leg nearly severed above the knee, and with several bullet-holes in his body. With undaunted courage he continued to fire into the emplacement from a prone position, killing two of the enemy and dispersing the rest of the crew.

PRIVATE, FIRST CLASS, MICHAEL J. PERKINS (Deceased), COMPANY D, 101ST INFANTRY (Medal awarded February 20, 1919)

For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity, above and beyond the call of duty, in action with the enemy at Belleau Bois, France, October 27, 1918.

Private Perkins, voluntarily and alone, crawled to a German "pill box" machine-gun emplacement, from which grenades were being thrown at his platoon. Awaiting his opportunity, when the door was again opened and another grenade thrown, he threw a bomb inside, bursting the door open; and then, drawing his trench knife, rushed into the emplacement. In a hand-to-hand struggle he killed or wounded several of the occupants and captured about twenty-five prisoners, at the same time silencing seven machine guns.

Such acts as these are rare indeed, and it is to be regretted that both these soldiers lost their lives as a result of their extreme courage and fearlessness. Their deeds will stand recorded in the annals of this division and will remain in the memories of its officers and men as true examples of the highest spirit of patriotism and self-sacrifice.
