

HOUSE No. 3770

By Mr. Landry of Waltham, petition of Richard E. Landry and another that provision be made for deductible provision in motor vehicle liability insurance policies. Insurance.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Seven.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR DEDUCTIBLE PROVISIONS TO BE INCLUDED IN MOTOR VEHICLE LIABILITY POLICIES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The commissioner of insurance is hereby authorized and
2 directed to provide for the inclusion of a three hundred dollar
3 maximum provision in compulsory motor vehicle liability pol-
4 icies for personal injury coverage and a one hundred dollar
5 maximum provision in motor vehicle liability policies for prop-
6 erty damage coverage.

The Housing Act of 1949, which provides for the construction of public housing, is the primary legislation in this field. It authorizes the Federal Government to provide financial assistance to local public housing agencies for the construction of new housing units and the rehabilitation of existing units.

The Administration of the Act

The Act is administered by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA), which is a part of the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The Act provides for the establishment of public housing agencies (PHAs) in areas where there is a demonstrated need for public housing. These agencies are responsible for the development, construction, and management of public housing projects.

The Act also provides for the establishment of public housing projects in areas where there is a demonstrated need for public housing. These projects are developed and managed by public housing agencies.
