

By Mr. Collaro of Worcester, petition of Andrew Collaro and others relative to increasing the retirement allowance to former municipal employees retired for accidental disability. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO INCREASING THE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE TO FORMER MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES RETIRED FOR ACCIDENTAL DISABILITY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 32 of the General Laws is hereby amended by
2 striking out section 90A and inserting in place thereof the
3 following section:—

4 Section 90A. Any city or town which accepts the provisions
5 of this section in the manner hereinafter provided may, in the 6 case of a city by two thirds vote of the city council and with
7 the approval of the mayor, or, in the case of a town, by two
8 thirds vote at the annual town meeting, increase the retire-
9 ment allowance of any former employee thereof who has been
10 retired under any provision of this chapter or similar provi-
11 sion of earlier law on account of injuries sustained or of 12 hazard undergone in the performance of his duty, to an 13 amount not exceeding two thirds of the rate of regular
14 compensation payable to employees of such city or town
15 holding similar positions, at the time of increasing such 16 allowance, in the same grade or classification occupied by 17 such former employee at the time of his retirement.

18 Any addition retirement allowance payable to any such 19 retired person as the father of a child or children under the 20 age of eighteen or as the father of a child or children over the 21 age of eighteen who are physically or mentally incapacitated
22 shall, for the purposes of this section, not be considered as 23 part of the retired person's retirement allowance.

By the Clerk of the House, printed by the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 1917.

The Government of the District of Columbia

As the Law of the District of Columbia

Section 1. The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall consist of five members, to be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years.

Section 2. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 3. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 4. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 5. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 6. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 7. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 8. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 9. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Section 10. The Board of Commissioners shall have the honor and authority of a cabinet officer, and shall be subject to removal by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.