

By Mr. Ahearn of Norwood, petition of David C. Ahearn and other members of the House for legislation to exclude certain expenditures by public utilities for rate-making purposes. Government Regulations.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy.

AN ACT TO EXCLUDE CERTAIN EXPENDITURES BY A PUBLIC UTILITY FOR RATE-MAKING PURPOSES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 159 of the General Laws is hereby 2 amended by adding after section 105, the following section:—

3 Section 106. Each public utility, subject to regulation under 4 this chapter, shall include in the accounts to be required to 5 be filed by it the following specified information in as complete 6 detail as the department of public utilities may, from time to 7 time require:— (a) All contributions made by it to any organi-
8 zation, corporation or association, whether profitable or non-9 profitable.

10 (b) All contributions, membership fees, assessments and ex-
11 penses paid by such public utility company to any trade organi-
12 zation, service organization, or other membership association,
13 specifying each such organization and the amount of each such 14 contribution, membership fee, assessment and expense made 15 by the said company to each such organization, together with 16 a statement of the purposes and activities of each such organiza-
17 tion during the year in question.

18 (c) Costs and expenses incurred directly or indirectly for 19 all advertising purchased by the utility or any organization or 20 association of it is a member.

21 (d) The names and address of all attorneys employed, di-22 rectly or indirectly, by the said company during the year, to-

23 gether with the sums paid to each such attorney for fees and 24 expenses, listed separately, and the nature of services rendered
25 by each such attorney to the company for which payment is 26 made.

27 (e) The names and addresses of all elected officials, federal,
28 state or local, to whom the company made payment or con-
29 tribution, directly or indirectly, whether made to such indi-
30 vidual or to any political organization on his behalf.

31 To the extent that payments included in such accounts are
32 determined by the department of public utilities to be expenses
33 incurred to influence legislation, or are classified as charitable
34 contributions, such sums shall be excluded from the operating
35 expenses for rate-making purposes.

1 SECTION 2. Section 94 of chapter 164, as most recently
2 amended by chapter 615 of the acts of 1963, is hereby further
3 amended by adding at the end the following: — Each public
4 utility, subject to regulation under this chapter, shall include
5 in the accounts to be required to be filed by it the following
6 specified information in as complete detail as the department
7 of public utilities may, from time to time require: — (a) All 8 contributions made by it to any organization, corporation or 9 association, whether profitable or non-profitable.

10 (b) All contributions, membership fees, assessments and ex-
11 penses paid by such public utility company to any trade organi-
12 zation, service organization, or other membership association,
13 specifying each such organization and the amount of each
14 such contribution, membership fee, assessment and expense
15 made by the said company to each such organization, together
16 with a statement of the purposes and activities of each such 17 organization during the year in question.

18 (c) Costs and expenses incurred directly or indirectly for 19 all advertising purchased by the utility or any organization or 20 association of it is a member.

21 (d) The names and addresses of all attorneys employed,
22 directly or indirectly, by the said company during the year,
23 together with the sums paid to each such attorney for fees and
24 expenses, listed separately, and the nature of services rendered
25 by each such attorney to the company for which payment is 26 made.

27 (e) The names and addresses of all elected officials, federal,
28 state or local, to whom the company made payment or con-
29 tribution, directly or indirectly, whether made to such indi-
30 vidual or to any political organization on his behalf.

31 To the extent that payments included in such accounts are
32 determined by the department of public utilities to be expenses
33 incurred to influence legislation, or are classified as charitable
34 contributions, such sums shall be excluded from the operating
35 expenses for rate-making purposes.

27. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

28. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

29. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

30. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

31. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

32. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

33. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

34. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.

35. To the extent that the amount included in the gross estate of a decedent is attributable to a gift made by the decedent to a trust or other entity for the benefit of a charitable organization, such amount shall be excluded from the gross estate for estate tax purposes.
