

SENATE . . . . . No. 45

---

---

By Mr. Harmon, a petition of Samuel Harmon that provision be made for an investigation and study by a special commission relative to encouraging commercial airlines and railroads to establish reduced fares for elderly persons. Transportation.

---

---

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy.

RESOLVE PROVIDING FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY BY A SPECIAL COMMISSION RELATIVE TO ENCOURAGING COMMERCIAL AIRLINES AND RAILROADS TO ESTABLISH REDUCED FARES FOR ELDERLY PERSONS.

Resolved, That a special commission to consist of three members of the senate, five members of the house of representatives and three persons to be appointed by the governor, is hereby established for the purpose of making an investigation and study of the possibility of having commercial airlines and railroads establish reduced fares for elderly persons at non-peak travel times.

for the purpose of providing a means of communication between the various departments of the Government and the people of the United States and to provide a means of communication between the various departments of the Government and the people of the United States.

The Government of the United States

In the Year One of the United States

There is provided for the purpose of providing a means of communication between the various departments of the Government and the people of the United States and to provide a means of communication between the various departments of the Government and the people of the United States.

It is the policy of the Government to provide a means of communication between the various departments of the Government and the people of the United States and to provide a means of communication between the various departments of the Government and the people of the United States.