
LOCAL APPROVAL

CITY OF BROCKTON, MASSACHUSETTS
OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK

In City Council, November 24, 1972

ORDERED:

The City Council of the City of Brockton petition the General Court, under the provisions of Section 8 of Article II of the Amendments to the Constitution, for an act:

Permitting the City of Brockton to withdraw its membership in the Metropolitan Area Planning Council because the City derives no benefits through its membership in MAPC because the City for Federal Certification purposes is included within the Area Planning Jurisdiction of the Old Colony Planning Council and the Old Colony Planning Council is a more logical regional planning district to suit the needs and purposes of the City.

Adopted.
