The Committee on Education

Report on the Education of the Deaf

The Committee on Education has the honor to report to the House of Representatives the results of its investigation into the condition of the deaf schools in this country. It is gratifying to find that the progress made in the past few years is such as to justify the confidence placed in the Department of Education.

It is found by the committee that the deaf schools are in a better condition than they were a few years ago, and that the progress made is such as to justify the confidence placed in the Department of Education.

The committee has also found that the deaf schools are in a better condition than they were a few years ago, and that the progress made is such as to justify the confidence placed in the Department of Education.
