

SENATE No. 1672

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

SENATE, July 1, 1978.

The committee on Ways and Means, to whom was committed the Senate bill providing for the development of home care services for the elderly (Senate, No. 467), reports recommending that the same ought to pass, with an amendment, substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 1672).

For the Committee,

JAMES A. KELLY, JR.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-eight.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF HOME CARE SERVICES FOR THE ELDERLY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 19A of the General Laws as most recently amended
2 by c. 1168 of the Acts of 1973 is hereby amended by inserting
3 in section 4 following subsection (O) the following subsec-
4 tion: —

5 (p) to encourage the formation of planning and service
6 areas which shall mean the distinct multi-county, county, 7 metropolitan, city or town of the State determined by the 8 department for the purposes of planning social services to the 9 elderly.

10 Chapter 19A of the General Laws as most recently amended
11 by c. 1168 of the Acts of 1973 is further amended by inserting
12 after section 4 the following sections: —

13 Section 4A. The department shall, after public hearing, es-14 tablish by regulation formula for the allocation of state and 15 federal funds by the department to planning and services areas
16 for home care services. The formula shall be based upon the 17 number of elderly in each planning and service area and upon 18 such other considerations as may be required by federal law
19 or regulation as a condition for the receipt of federal funds
20 for home care services. The department shall publish annually 21 a listing of the amount of state and federal funds allocated to 22 each planning and service area and to each city and town
23 within each planning and service area for home care services.

24 Section 4B. The department shall, after public hearing, es-25 tablish by regulation standards by which it shall judge and 26 select those organizations with which it contracts as home
27 care providers for the coordination or direct delivery of one
28 or more home care services. In the establishment of standards
29 and delivery of services the department shall give due con-
30 sideration to councils for aging.

31 Section 4C. No person shall be disqualified from the receipt
32 of any home services solely on the basis of financial ability,
33 provided that there is established a need for the particular
34 home care service to the individual. The department shall pro-
35 vide on a sliding scale basis, payment for the full or partial 36 cost of home care services giving consideration to the financial 37 ability of the recipient to pay for such services.

38 Section 4D. The department shall, after public hearing, 39 establish by regulation a system of appeals for any elderly per-40 son, council for aging, or home care provider denied, termi-
41 nated or reduced from either providing or receiving home care
42 services or any contract or reimbursement from the depart-43 ment for such services, and shall also establish a system for 44 the hearing of complaints by any elderly person, council for 45 aging or home care provider with regard to the provision of 46 home care services.

47 Said appeals may be available to elderly persons in their 48 homes where deemed appropriate by the department and shall 49 be conducted in a manner so as to insure the privacy and 50 dignity of elderly persons.

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the war. It is followed by a detailed account of the military operations in the West, the East, and the Balkans. The report also discusses the economic and social conditions in the various countries, and the impact of the war on the civilian population. The final part of the report contains a summary of the main findings and conclusions.

The report is divided into several sections, each dealing with a different aspect of the war. The first section, 'General Situation', provides an overview of the global conflict. The second section, 'Military Operations', details the movements of the armies and the results of the battles. The third section, 'Economic and Social Conditions', examines the effects of the war on the home front. The fourth section, 'Conclusions', summarizes the overall state of the war and offers some perspectives on the future.

The report is written in a clear and concise style, and is well-organized and easy to read. It is a valuable source of information for anyone interested in the history of the First World War.
