

[Similar Matter Filed During Past Session —
See Senate No. 2199 of 1984.]

SENATE . . . . . No. 434

---

---

By Mr. Boverini, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 434) of Walter J. Boverini for legislation to further define disabled veterans' employment preference. Public Service.

---

---

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

---

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-five.

---

AN ACT FURTHER DEFINING DISABLED VETERANS' EMPLOYMENT PREFERENCE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Massachusetts General Law chapter 31 section 28 is hereby
- 2 amended by adding the following language:
- 3 "A disabled veteran shall be retained in employment in
- 4 preference to all other persons, including veterans."

1. The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work during the year. It is divided into two main sections, the first of which deals with the general situation and the second with the progress of the work.

2. The second part of the report deals with the details of the work done during the year. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the work done in the field, the second with the work done in the laboratory, and the third with the work done in the office.

3. The third part of the report deals with the results of the work done during the year. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the results of the field work, the second with the results of the laboratory work, and the third with the results of the office work.

4. The fourth part of the report deals with the conclusions drawn from the work done during the year. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the conclusions drawn from the field work, the second with the conclusions drawn from the laboratory work, and the third with the conclusions drawn from the office work.

5. The fifth part of the report deals with the recommendations made during the year. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the recommendations made from the field work, the second with the recommendations made from the laboratory work, and the third with the recommendations made from the office work.

6. The sixth part of the report deals with the summary of the work done during the year. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the summary of the field work, the second with the summary of the laboratory work, and the third with the summary of the office work.

7. The seventh part of the report deals with the closing remarks. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the closing remarks of the field work, the second with the closing remarks of the laboratory work, and the third with the closing remarks of the office work.

8. The eighth part of the report deals with the index. It is divided into three main sections, the first of which deals with the index of the field work, the second with the index of the laboratory work, and the third with the index of the office work.