

By Mr. Kennedy of Brockton, petition of Thomas P. Kennedy that cities and towns be prohibited from compelling librarians to work on Sundays. Commerce and Labor.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT CERTAIN LIBRARIANS SHALL NOT BE COMPELLED TO WORK ON SUNDAYS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding
2 the following section: —

3 Section 33E. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the con-
4 trary, no person employed as a librarian by a city or town shall be
5 required to work on Sunday, provided that any person who volun-
6 tarily does work shall be compensated therefor at the rate of one
7 and one-half times their usual compensation.
