

HOUSE . . . . . No. 3362

By Mr. Finneran of Boston, petition of Joseph M. Bonavita and Thomas M. Finneran relative to the rights of municipal employees reinstated to employment after the reduction in force under proposition two and one-half, so-called. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

AN ACT REGULATING THE RIGHTS OF MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES WHO WERE LAID-OFF IN THE YEARS NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-ONE AND NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-TWO.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 In any city or town which accepts this act, any municipal
2 employee whose employment was terminated in nineteen hundred
3 and eighty-one or nineteen hundred and eighty-two due to a
4 reduction in force and subsequently was reinstated to his former
5 position on or before July first, nineteen hundred and eighty-
6 three, shall be credited with active service for such period of 7 unemployment. Such credited service shall be included as part of 8 his length of service, and shall be applied to his seniority,
9 promotional examinations and retirement; provided however,
10 that said municipal employee shall be required to pay into the 11 annuity savings fund of the retirement system in one sum, or in 12 installments upon conditions as the retirement board shall
13 prescribe, an amount equal to the accumulated regular deductions
14 withdrawn by him, if any, with the regular interest to his date of 15 reinstatement.

By Mr. Speaker of House of Representatives, I have the honor to inform you that the bill for the relief of the estate of Thomas M. Larkin, deceased, has been passed by the House of Representatives, and will now be sent to the Senate.

The Committee on Education

Report on the Bill for the Relief of the Estate of Thomas M. Larkin, deceased.

The Committee on Education, to which the bill for the relief of the estate of Thomas M. Larkin, deceased, was referred, has the honor to report the same, with amendments, and to recommend that the bill do pass.

The bill is reported in conformity with the resolution of the House of Representatives, passed on the 10th day of March, 1883.

1. In any case where the estate of a deceased person is being administered by a court of law, and the executor or administrator thereof is unable to pay the debts of the estate, and the creditors thereof are unable to recover their debts, the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
2. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
3. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
4. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
5. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
6. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
7. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
8. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
9. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
10. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
11. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.
12. The court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate, and the court may, upon the application of any of the creditors, order the executor or administrator to pay the debts of the estate out of the assets of the estate.