Chap. 148 AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE APPOINTMENT AS SPECIAL POLICE OFFICERS OF EMPLOYEES OF THE PORT OF BOSTON AUTHORITY.

Emergency preamble.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is in part to provide for the appointment without delay of the police officers referred to therein, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety and convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

G. L. (Ter.
Ed.), 147,
new § 10A,
added.

Employees of Port of Boston Authority may be appointed special police officers, etc.

Chapter 147 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 10 the following section:— Section 10A. The commissioner may, at the request of the Port of Boston Authority, appoint as special police officers employees of said Authority. Such special police officers shall serve for one year, subject to removal by the commissioner, and they shall have the same power to make arrests as the state police for any criminal offence committed in or upon lands, piers or structures within the charge of said Authority. They shall report to the commissioner as to their official acts at such times and in such manner as he may require. They shall serve without pay, except their regular compensation as employees of said Authority, and they shall receive no fees for services or return of any criminal process.

Approved April 8, 1949.
