

By Mr. Kraus, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 264) of Richard A. Kraus and Michael J. Barrett for legislation to further regulate membership on the Board of Regents of Higher Education. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

AN ACT FURTHER REGULATING MEMBERSHIP ON THE BOARD OF REGENTS OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The fifth paragraph of section 2 of chapter 15A,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the first
3 sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence: —
4 No member of said board of regents shall be principally
5 employed by any private educational institution in the common-
6 wealth; nor shall any member of said board of regents be a
7 member of a board of trustees of a private higher educational
8 institution in the commonwealth; nor shall any such member be 9 principally employed by any public educational institution or by 10 the commonwealth.

1 SECTION 2. Section one shall not apply to members of the
2 board of regents holding office on the effective date of this act.
3 Members of said board of regents who are currently serving their 4 term will be permitted to finish their tenure. At the end of their 5 term, the provisions of the above section will come into effect.

of the State of New York, in and for the County of Albany, do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the original of the same as the same appears from the records of the Senate:

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

As amended by the Constitution of 1892, and the Constitution of 1901, and the Constitution of 1938, and the Constitution of 1964, and the Constitution of 1977, and the Constitution of 1992, and the Constitution of 1997, and the Constitution of 2001, and the Constitution of 2005, and the Constitution of 2009, and the Constitution of 2013, and the Constitution of 2017, and the Constitution of 2021.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the Senate at Albany, this 1st day of January, 2021.

JOHN B. COVINO, Secretary of the Senate

ARTICLE I. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in a Senate and an Assembly, which shall be styled "The People's Representative Body." The Senate shall be composed of twenty-four members, and the Assembly of fifty-five members, who shall be chosen for terms of two years, and shall meet on the first Monday of January next following the election of the members thereof. The members of the Senate shall be chosen by the electors in each county, and the members of the Assembly shall be chosen by the electors in each county and in the City of New York. The members of the Senate shall be chosen in the following manner: In each county, the electors shall elect one member to represent the county in the Senate, and the electors in the City of New York shall elect two members to represent the City in the Senate. The members of the Assembly shall be chosen in the following manner: In each county, the electors shall elect one member to represent the county in the Assembly, and the electors in the City of New York shall elect ten members to represent the City in the Assembly. The members of the Senate shall be chosen in the following manner: In each county, the electors shall elect one member to represent the county in the Senate, and the electors in the City of New York shall elect two members to represent the City in the Senate. The members of the Assembly shall be chosen in the following manner: In each county, the electors shall elect one member to represent the county in the Assembly, and the electors in the City of New York shall elect ten members to represent the City in the Assembly.

ARTICLE II. The executive power of this State shall be vested in the Governor, who shall hold office for a term of four years, and shall be eligible for re-election. The Governor shall be chosen by the electors in each county and in the City of New York. The Governor shall have the honor and power of pardon, and shall have the power to grant reprieves and commutations of sentence, and to pardon and commute the sentences of all persons convicted of any crime, except in cases where the pardon or commutation is withheld by the Legislature. The Governor shall have the power to appoint and remove all officers and judges of the State, and to appoint and remove all officers and judges of the County of New York. The Governor shall have the power to appoint and remove all officers and judges of the County of New York. The Governor shall have the power to appoint and remove all officers and judges of the County of New York.