

By Ms. Schur of Newton, petition of Susan D. Schur and other members of the House relative to modifying the alternative energy property program. Energy.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Eight.

AN ACT MODIFYING THE ALTERNATIVE ENERGY PROPERTY PROGRAM.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Section 11 of Chapter 25A of the General Laws is hereby
- 2 amended by striking the second sentence and inserting in place
- 3 thereof the following new sentence: —
- 4 Said secretary is hereby authorized and directed to establish an
- 5 alternative energy property program to provide alternative energy
- 6 sources for buildings and facilities (i) owned by (1) the
- 7 commonwealth, (2) its political subdivisions, (3) public authorities
- 8 and other public instrumentalities of the commonwealth and of
- 9 its political subdivisions including, but not limited to, housing
- 10 authorities and (ii) leased by the political subdivisions of the
- 11 commonwealth for at least thirty years and which are used for
- 12 the provision of local government services.
- 13 Prior to approving any payment under said program with
- 14 respect to premises leased by a political subdivision of the
- 15 commonwealth, the secretary shall certify that the terms of such
- 16 lease are such that any benefit accruing to a private party from
- 17 such financing is incidental to the public purpose served by such
- 18 financing and is, therefore, consistent with the provisions of article
- 19 62 of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

By the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States of America in open session on the 11th day of June 1908.

The Constitution of the United States

As amended by the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Amendments thereto.

Approved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in conference on the 20th day of September 1850.

Approved by the President of the United States on the 27th day of September 1850.

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

Section 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for a Term of six Years; and they shall hold their Offices until their Successors be chosen.

Section 4. The Times, Places and Manner of holding the Elections of Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law alter or change in any or all these Particulars their Times, Places and Manner.
