AN ACT CLARIFYING A PROVISION OF THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW. Chap.209

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 73 of chapter 152 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by section 12 of chapter 379 of the acts of 1941, is hereby further amended by striking out the first two sentences and inserting in place thereof the following two sentences:— Any person entitled under section sixty-nine to receive compensation from the commonwealth or from such county, city, town or district, and who is also entitled to a pension by reason of the same injury, shall elect whether he will receive such compensation or such pension, and shall not receive both, except in the manner and to the extent provided by section fourteen of chapter thirty-two. A retirement board, for the purposes of the last-mentioned section, may prosecute in the name and for the benefit of a member or beneficiary of its system or his legal representative or any of his dependents, who is or may become entitled to a pension under chapter thirty-two, all claims which he or they may have for compensation under this chapter, if such member, beneficiary, legal representative or dependent has failed, or such board is of opinion that he will fail, to make or prosecute such claim with reasonable promptness and diligence.

G. L. (Ter. Ed.), 152, § 73, etc., amended.

Election between compensation and pension.
