
By Mr. Davenport, a petition of John F. Collins, mayor of Boston, that provision be made for an advisory board in the Metropolitan Parks District. Metropolitan Affairs.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Five.

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR AN ADVISORY BOARD IN THE METROPOLITAN PARKS DISTRICT.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 92 of the General Laws is hereby amended by in-
2 serting after section 33 the following section: —
3 Section 33A. There is hereby established a board, to be 4 known as the advisory board of the metropolitan district, con-
5 sisting of the city manager or, if there be no such official, the 6 mayor, of each city, and the chairman of the board of select-7 men of each town, constituting said district. Every action by 8 said board shall require the affirmative vote of sixty-five per 9 cent of the total number of votes in said board. Each city 10 manager, mayor and chairman of a board of selectmen shall 11 have a number of votes in proportion to the respective taxable
12 valuation of the property of his city or town. The board here-
13 by established shall organize annually by the election of a
14 chairman and a secretary, and may incur expenses, not ex-
15 ceeding five thousand dollars annually, for stenographic and 16 clerical work, which shall be paid by the commonwealth and 17 assessed in the proportion aforesaid upon the cities and towns 18 constituting said district as provided by section twenty of 19 chapter fifty-nine of the General Laws. After June thirtieth,
20 nineteen hundred and sixty-three, the commission shall not 21 acquire any land nor commence the construction of any project
22 unless the acquisition of such land or the construction of such 23 project shall have been approved by said advisory board.

By the Committee on Finance, in answer to a resolution of the Senate, passed on the 10th day of March, 1892, relative to the report of the Auditor General, relative to the accounts of the Department of the Interior.
