

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE RANK AND QUALIFICATIONS OF THE AIDES-DE-CAMP OF THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF. Chap.362

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 33 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 15, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 425 of the acts of 1939, and inserting in place thereof the following section: — Section 15. The aides-de-camp of the commander-in-chief shall consist of: one with the rank of colonel or with corresponding naval rank, who shall be chief of aides-de-camp, one with the rank of lieutenant colonel or with corresponding naval rank, one with the rank of major or with corresponding naval rank, three with the rank of captain or with corresponding naval rank, all of whom shall be exempt from the examinations required by this chapter, and eight aides-de-camp to be detailed from the commissioned officers of the organized militia, but not to be relieved from duty with their organizations while serving in that capacity.

G. L. (Ter. Ed.), 33, § 15, etc., amended.

Aides-de-camp.

In case of war, actual or threatened, the commander-in-chief may appoint such additional aides-de-camp as the service may require, with rank not higher than that of colonel, and he may delegate to, or confer on, such aides-de-camp such authority and duties as he deems proper.

The aides-de-camp, aforesaid, excepting the detailed aides-de-camp, shall be commissioned and hold office until their successors are qualified, but they may be removed at any time by the commander-in-chief.

No person shall be eligible to appointment as such aide-de-camp unless he shall have served at least one year in the armed services of the United States or the organized militia of the commonwealth.

sons to hunt within said boundaries any of the unprotected birds named in section fifty-three, or the fur-bearing mammals mentioned in section sixty-eight, or foxes, weasels, wildcats, woodchucks or skunks. Such an authorization shall be by written license, revocable at the pleasure of the authority or person granting it. The boards, officials and persons having control and charge of such reservations, parks, commons or lands owned or leased or held for public use shall enforce this section.

This section shall not apply to state forests acquired under section thirty or thirty-three of chapter one hundred and thirty-two or any other provision of law, or to state parks and reservations under the control of the division of parks and recreation of the department. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the metropolitan district commission from permitting the hunting of any bird or mammal during the legal open season on the same in any area under its control.

Chap. 364 AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT BY THE BOARD OF PROBATION OF UNIFORM FORMS OF BLANKS AND RECORDS FOR USE BY DISTRICT COURT PROBATION OFFICES.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 276 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 101, as amended, the following section: — Section 101A. The board of probation shall establish uniform forms of blanks and records for use in the probation offices of the district courts, and, upon receipt of competitive bids, shall order and maintain such supply of said forms as it shall determine to be necessary to meet the requirements of all such offices. The county commissioners of each county shall from time to time secure from the board of probation forms for use by district court probation offices in such county, in such quantities as shall be determined by them and by said board. The actual expense of preparing such forms shall be apportioned by said board among the several counties in proportion to the quantities required by each, and the county commissioners of each county shall audit the bills therefor and order payment thereof. No forms of blanks and records other than those established and furnished hereunder shall be used in such probation offices unless approved by said board.

SECTION 2. Section 102 of said chapter 276, as appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 1, the words "The four preceding sections" and inserting in place thereof the words: — Sections ninety-eight to one hundred and one A, inclusive, — so as to read as follows: — Section 102. Sections ninety-eight to one hundred and one A, inclusive, shall not affect the authority of the courts to require the keeping by their probation officers of probation records in addition to those necessary to conform
