AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE TOWN OF MIDDLETON TO PERMIT
THE ERECTION AND MAINTENANCE BY THE BOY SCOUTS
OF AMERICA OF A BUILDING ON RECREATION PARK, SO
CALLED, A PUBLIC PARK IN SAID TOWN. Chap. 62

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The town of Middleton, by its board of selectmen, and upon such terms and conditions as such board may specify and approve, is hereby authorized to grant a permit authorizing the local troop or troops of the Boy Scouts of America within said town to erect, and thereafter to maintain, on Recreation park, so called, a public park in said town, a building to be used by said Boy Scouts of America for recreational purposes. Notwithstanding such permit, the control and supervision of such land shall remain under the board of selectmen. Upon failure of said troop or troops for the period of two years to make use of said property for such purposes, said board of selectmen may immediately cancel such permit upon written notice to said troop or troops. Upon termination of such permit, any
