The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Two.

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT CERTAIN PAYMENTS SHALL NOT BE CONSIDERED AS INCOME OF AN APPLICANT FOR EXEMPTION UNDER THE LAW PROVIDING A TAX ABATEMENT FOR CERTAIN ELDERLY PERSONS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Clause Forty-first of section 5 of chapter 59 of the General 2 Laws, as amended by chapter 728 of the acts of 1966, is 3 hereby further amended by striking out the last sentence and 4 inserting in place thereof the following sentence: — In com-5 puting the net income of an applicant for exemption under this 6 clause any payments received by him under the Federal Social 7 Security Law, the Railroad Retirement Law, or chapters one 8 hundred and eighteen, one hundred and eighteen A, and one 9 hundred and eighteen D shall not be considered as income.

At the Academy of Medicine, Paris, in 1811, the honorable F. Broussais, the physician to the Emperor, was presented with the following proposition: "The disease called the law of the Academy of Medicine is a disease of the stomach."

The Community of Stomach

In the last few years the French Academy of Medicine has been occupied with the study of the disease called the law of the Academy of Medicine.

The law of the Academy of Medicine is a disease of the stomach, and is characterized by the presence of a certain number of symptoms, which are the following: 1. The stomach is enlarged, and is filled with a thick, yellowish fluid, which is called the law of the Academy of Medicine.
