

a hearing, reasonable notice of which shall have been published once in a newspaper published in such city or town, may grant, and may suspend or revoke, licenses for recreational camps, overnight camps or cabins or trailer camps located within such city or town, which license, unless previously suspended or revoked, shall expire on December thirty-first in the year of issue, but may be renewed annually upon application without such notice and hearing. The fee for each original license shall be three dollars and for each renewal thereof fifty cents. Such board of health shall at once notify the state department of public health of the granting or renewal of such a license, and said department shall have jurisdiction to inspect the premises so licensed to determine that the sources of water supply and the works for the disposition of the sewage of such premises are sanitary. If upon inspection of such premises said department finds the sources of water supply to be polluted or the works for the disposition of the sewage to be insanitary, or both of such conditions, said department shall forthwith notify such board of health and such licensee to that effect by registered mail and said board shall forthwith prohibit the use of any water supply found by said department to be polluted. Unless such licensee shall, within thirty days following the giving of such notice, correct the conditions at such premises to the satisfaction of both said department and such board the license so granted shall be suspended or revoked by such board. Any license so suspended may be reinstated by such board when the conditions at such premises, as to sources of water supply and works for the disposition of sewage, are satisfactory to said department and such board. The board of health of a city or town may adopt, and from time to time alter or amend, rules and regulations to enforce this section in such city or town.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING HAMPDEN COUNTY TO EXPEND A CERTAIN SUM OF MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING CERTAIN BILLS OF THE YEAR NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOUR. Chap. 154

SECTION 1. The county of Hampden may expend eleven thousand, six hundred and sixty-eight dollars and twenty-three cents for the purpose of paying certain bills incurred during the year nineteen hundred and forty-four, as shown in the list on file in the office of the county commissioners of said county, the said sum to be included in the appropriations for the current year for said county.

Said bills, when approved by the county commissioners, may be paid by the treasurer from any available funds or from the proceeds of loans made in anticipation of taxes of the year nineteen hundred and forty-five.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
