

HOUSE No. 1902

By Mr. Piro of Somerville, petition of the Associated Contractors of Massachusetts, Inc., and Vincent J. Piro that provision be made for a penalty for false representation of workmen's compensation claims. Commerce and Labor.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Four.

AN ACT PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR FALSE REPRESENTATION OF WORKERS COMPENSATION CLAIMS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Chapter one hundred and fifty-two of the General Laws is
- 2 hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new section: —
- 3 Section 76. Penalty for False Representation. A person who
- 4 willfully makes a false statement or representation, for the purpose
- 5 of obtaining any benefit or payment under the provisions of this
- 6 chapter, either for himself or for any person shall be fined not more
- 7 than one thousand dollars and the industrial accident board may
- 8 forfeit all his rights to the compensation sought.

In Mr. Nixon's report on the 1954-55 session of the House of Representatives, the following statement is made: "The House of Representatives has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the report of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, dated July 1, 1954, and to express its appreciation for the valuable information and suggestions contained therein."

The Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government

Report of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government

AN ACT TO PROVIDE A COMMISSION TO STUDY AND REPORT ON THE ORGANIZATION OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT

Section 1. There is hereby established a Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, to be composed of the following members: the President, the Vice President, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chief Justice of the United States, and such other members as the President may designate.

Section 2. The Commission shall have the honor and right to call upon any department, agency, or office of the Executive Branch of the Government for such information and assistance as it may require in the performance of its duties. It shall also have the honor and right to hold public hearings and to receive and consider such suggestions and recommendations as may be submitted to it by any person.
