

By Mr. Cusack of Arlington, petition of John F. Cusack and Andrew J. Rogers, Jr., relative to providing an income tax credit for families caring for elderly relatives at home. Taxation.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-Four.

AN ACT PROVIDING AN INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR FAMILIES FOR THEIR ELDERLY AT HOME.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 6 of Chapter 62 of the General Laws is hereby amended
2 by adding after paragraph (d) the following new paragraph: — 3 (e) a credit of four hundred dollars shall be allowed against the 4 taxes due if the taxpayer has provided more than one-half of the 5 support for an elderly relative who has attained the age of seventy-6 five before the taxable year provided that the elderly relative
7 resided with the taxpayer for more than six months of the taxable 8 year and provided further that the adjusted gross income of the 9 taxpayer does not exceed fifty thousand dollars in the case of a 10 single return and sixty-thousand dollars in the case of a joint 11 return. If the credit provided for in this section reduces the tax due 12 to zero the taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund equal to the 13 amount by which the amount of the credit exceeded the amount of 14 the tax due.
