AN ACT FURTHER DEFINING AND REGULATING CLINICS SUBJECT TO LICENSURE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The definition of "Clinic" in Section 52 of Chapter 111 of the
2 General Laws as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 674 of the Acts
3 of 1979, is hereby further amended by striking out the second
4 sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence: — In 5 addition, "clinic" shall include any entity, however organized,
6 whether conducted for profit or not for profit, which is advertised,
7 announced, established, or maintained under a name which
8 includes the word "clinic", "emergency", "dispensary", or "insti-
9 tute", and which suggests that ambulatory medical, surgical, den-
10 tal, physical rehabilitation, or mental health services are rendered
11 therein.

In the Court of the House of Representatives, District of Columbia, D.C.

The Constitution of the United States

Article I, Section 8, Clause 18

to make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.

And the Congress shall have Power to make and enforce Laws, and to punish Offenses, against this Constitution, and for the Execution thereof.

Section 9. The Migration and Importation of Persons shall be subject to the Regulation of the Congress, until the Year 1808; but the Congress shall not extend the Term of the said Regulation beyond the Year aforesaid, and they shall not extend to Children of free Persons born in the United States, and to other Persons who have already been admitted Citizens.

Section 10. No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; nor shall State enter into any Agreement or Compact with another State, or with a foreign Power, or with the Indians; but the Congress may enter into Treaties, Alliances, or Confederations, and may execute the same; and they may enter into Agreements or Compacts with the Indians.

Section 11. No State shall be obliged to furnish Troops for the Service of the United States, unless it be actually invaded, or such Invasion be imminent.

Section 12. No State shall be deprived of Territory, without its Consent.

Section 13. No State shall be deprived of Representatives in the House of Representatives, without its Consent.

Section 14. The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each State against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Governor (when the Legislature may be so disabled), against domestic Violence.

Section 15. No State shall be deprived of its equal Footing with the States in the Compact of Union.

Section 16. The United States may purchase Lands from the States, and may acquire by Treaty, Gifts, or otherwise, Territory, and other Property, which shall be owned by the United States, and may dispose of the same, as they may think proper, by Selling, or otherwise.

Section 17. The United States may acquire Property by Purchase, or otherwise, and may dispose of the same, as they may think proper, by Selling, or otherwise.

Section 18. The United States may acquire Property by Purchase, or otherwise, and may dispose of the same, as they may think proper, by Selling, or otherwise.
