

SENATE No. 304

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

SENATE, Feb. 24, 1921.

The committee on Cities, to which was referred the petition (with accompanying bill, Senate, No. 95) of Thomas F. Donovan that the city of Boston be authorized to employ John C. Fitzgerald as a sanitary inspector without civil service examination, reports the accompanying Bill (Senate, No. 304).

For the committee,

JOHN J. CAREY.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-One.

AN ACT

Relative to the Employment by the City of Boston of John C. Fitzgerald as a Sanitary Inspector.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The city of Boston is hereby
2 authorized to employ as a sanitary inspector,
3 without civil service examination, John C. Fitz-
4 gerald, for thirty-five years in the employ of said
5 city, of which five were in the capacity of acting
6 sanitary inspector.

1 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its
2 acceptance by the city council of said city, sub-
3 ject to the provisions of its charter, provided
4 such acceptance occurs prior to December thirty-
5 first in the current year.
