

HOUSE No. 136

Accompanying the fifth recommendation of the Civil Service Commission (House, No. 131). Pensions and Old Age Assistance.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-One.

AN ACT EXEMPTING CERTAIN CONSULTANTS FROM THE LAW PROHIBITING THE PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION TO FORMER PUBLIC EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE BEEN RETIRED.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The first sentence of section 91 of chapter 32 of the 2 General Laws, as most recently amended by chapter 3 656 of the acts of 1950, is hereby further amended by 4 inserting after the word "year" in the fifth from last 5 line, the words:— or for service as consultant for 6 division of civil service aggregating not more than 7 thirty days in any year; , — so as to read as follows:
8 — Section 91. No person while receiving a pension
9 or retirement allowance from the commonwealth or 10 from any county, city or town, shall, after the date 11 of his retirement be paid for any service rendered to 12 the commonwealth or any county, city, town or dis-
13 trict, except upon his return and restoration to active
14 service as ordered by the appropriate retirement 15 board after re-examination in case of retirement for

16 disability, for jury service, or for service rendered in 17 an emergency under section sixty-eight, sixty-nine or 18 eighty-three, or for service in a public office to which 19 he has thereafter been elected by direct vote of the 20 people, or for service rendered by an appointee under 21 section sixteen of chapter two hundred and eight or 22 section fifty-six A of chapter two hundred and fifteen,
23 or for service as a member of the executive council 24 after having been chosen or appointed under the 25 provisions of Article XXV of the Amendments to the 26 Constitution of the commonwealth, or for service in 27 a confidential capacity under section seven of chapter
28 thirty in the executive department, or in the depart-29 ment of the state secretary, the state treasurer, the 30 state auditor or the attorney general, or for service as 31 a physician aggregating not more than thirty days in 32 any year, or for service as consultant for division of 33 civil service aggregating not more than thirty days in 34 any year; provided, that there shall be deducted
35 from the compensation for the services of any person 36 employed in a confidential capacity as aforesaid an 37 amount equal to the retirement allowance or pension
38 received by him.
