Chap. 68 AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE TEMPORARY STAYING OR SUSPENSION OF CERTAIN ORDERS AND FINDINGS UNDER THE SALE OF SECURITIES ACT.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

G. L. (Ter. Ed.), 110A, § 13, etc., amended.

Section thirteen of chapter one hundred and ten A of the General Laws, as appearing in section one of chapter two hundred and ninety of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirty-two, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "counsel" in the sixth line the following new sentence:— Pending such hearing and the affirmation, modification or rescission of such an order or finding, two or more of the members of the commission may stay or suspend the taking effect of such order or finding, — so as to read as follows:— Section 13. Any interested person aggrieved by any order or finding or refusal or failure to make an order or finding by the commission shall be entitled, upon filing within twenty days thereafter a claim therefor in writing, to a public hearing before a majority of the members of the commission, at which he may be represented by counsel. Pending such hearing and the affirmation, modification or rescission of such an order or finding, two or more of the members of the commission may stay or suspend the taking effect of such order or finding. At such hearing any evidence relevant to the subject matter involved in the proceedings, in which the commission made such order or finding or failed to make an order or finding, may be introduced. Any testimony which was previously taken by the commission relative thereto may be introduced and may be shown by a stenographic transcript thereof. When so requested by any such person, the commission shall rule upon any question of law properly arising in the course of such hearing. Any failure or refusal of the commission to rule upon such question within ten days after such request shall be taken and recorded as a ruling adverse to the person requesting the same. At the conclusion of such hearing, the commission shall reconsider and review the said subject matter and shall, within twenty days thereafter, affirm, modify or rescind the order or finding or refusal complained of. The supreme judicial and superior courts shall have jurisdiction in equity to review,

Temporary suspension, etc., of certain orders, etc.
