Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of providing adequate court house accommodations and facilities for the district court of east Norfolk, the county commissioners of Norfolk county may construct and originally furnish and equip additions to the district court house at Quincy, and, for the purpose of providing such accommodations and facilities for the district court of northern Norfolk, said commissioners may take by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine of the General Laws, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, such land in Dedham as may be necessary and may erect on such land a suitable building for said court and may equip and furnish the same.

SECTION 2. For the purposes aforesaid, the treasurer of said county, with the approval of the county commissioners, may borrow upon the credit of the county, such sums as may be necessary, not exceeding, in the aggregate, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and may issue bonds or notes of the county therefor, which shall bear on the face the words, Norfolk County District Court House Loan, Act of 1937. Each authorized issue shall constitute a separate loan and such loans shall be payable not more than five years from their dates. The bonds or notes shall be signed by the county treasurer and countersigned by a majority of the county commissioners. The county may sell the said securities at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as the county commissioners may deem proper, but not for less than their par value. Indebtedness incurred hereunder shall, except as herein provided, be subject to chapter thirty-five of the General Laws.

SECTION 3. The county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may issue temporary notes of the county, payable in not more than one year from their dates, in anticipation of the issue of serial bonds or notes under this act, but the time within which such serial bonds or notes shall become due and payable shall not, by reason of such temporary notes, be extended beyond the time fixed by this act. Any notes issued in anticipation of the serial bonds or notes shall be paid from the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon its acceptance during the current year by the county commissioners of said county, but not otherwise. Approved March 11, 1937.
