

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE ALLOWANCE AND ACCEPTANCE OF REBATES OF PREMIUMS ON POLICIES OF INSURANCE AND THE LIKE. Chap. 18

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section one hundred and eighty-four of chapter one hundred and seventy-five of the General Laws, as amended by section two of chapter ninety-three of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-six, is hereby further amended by striking out, in the third to eighth lines, inclusive, the words "in the second clause of section forty-seven, as to which they shall apply only to insurance against loss or damage to motor vehicles, their fittings and contents and against loss or damage caused by teams, automobiles or other vehicles, excepting rolling stock of railways, as provided in said second clause" and inserting in place thereof the words:— in subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of the second clause of section forty-seven, — so as to read as follows:— Section 184. The two preceding sections shall apply to all kinds of insurance, including contracts of corporate suretyship, except those specified in subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of the second clause of section forty-seven. The said sections shall not prohibit any company from paying a commission to another company or to any person who is duly licensed as an insurance agent of such company or as an insurance broker and who holds himself out and carries on business in good faith as such, or prohibit any such person or any company from receiving a commission in respect to any policy under which he or it is insured, or in respect to any annuity or pure endowment contract held by him; nor shall said sections apply to (1) a distribution, without special favor or advantage, by mutual companies to policy holders of savings, earnings or surplus without specification thereof in the policy, or (2) the furnishing to the insured of information or advice by any company, officer, agent or broker with regard to any risk for the purpose of reducing the liability of loss, or (3) the payment or allowance to the insured of a return premium upon the cancellation or surrender of a policy, or of a cash surrender or other value upon the lapse or surrender of a policy of life or endowment insurance or upon the exchange, alteration or conversion of any such policy under section one hundred and thirty-nine.

G. L. 175, § 184, etc., amended.

Application of certain provisions of law relating to rebates, etc., on insurance policies, etc.

Approved February 4, 1930.
